

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1895.

NO. 39

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Mr. W. B. Bowman has been on the sick list for a few days. Mr. Ansel Archer, of Burgin, is here on a business trip.

—The young people gave Miss Carrie Downs a surprise party Friday evening. A very pleasant time was spent by those who attended.

—Mrs. N. A. Saddler, who was run over and hurt while passing under the cars standing on the side track at Corbin about two weeks ago, was brought here and buried last Wednesday.

—The farmers are busy cutting their oats crop this week. They report as fine a crop as was ever raised, if they can get them saved now without damage. The prospects for corn in Whitley is fine. Nearly everybody is done plowing and have the corn in good condition.

—Mrs. C. Gatlin is very low with consumption and it is not thought she can live many more days. Mrs. J. W. Siler, Mrs. J. P. Mahan and Miss Ruby Gatlin returned from Asheville, N. C. last week, where they had spent several weeks.

—We notice that Mr. E. W. Cain, formerly of this place, has located in your town and we take pleasure in recommending him to your people, both as a business man and a gentleman, and your young people will find him quite an addition to their society.

—Williamsburg did not celebrate the 4th at home, but most of her people went out somewhere to some of the picnics. A large crowd spent the day at Mahan and report a pleasant time. Everything passed off quietly so far as we have been able to learn.

—Mrs. Walcott, of Richmond, is visiting Mr. G. A. Denham's family. Your correspondent spent last week with relatives and friends in Madison county. Dr. M. K. Pennington has gone to West Virginia for a few weeks. Mrs. C. W. Leeter and sons have returned from Somerset.

—Mr. Willard Ames, of Berea, spent Sunday with friends here. Judge H. H. Tye and J. W. Perkins spent last week in Louisville and other places near there. Several of our people were at Lexington, among the number Misses Hill, Mary O'Mara, Messrs. John Steeley, Milford White and C. M. Stevens.

—Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father, Judge R. T. Hemphill, Mrs. Mollie Meadows and Mrs. J. M. Mahan were united in marriage. Rev. J. C. Steely officiating. Mr. Mahan is the traveling salesman of Grinstead & Tinsley in this section and well-known, while the bride is an accomplished lady and of an old and highly respected family of this section. They left immediately on a trip to Niagara Falls and points of interest in the North and East.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Dr. William Shelton will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—Over 30,000 Christian Endeavorers have arrived at Boston to attend their annual convention.

—A $37,000 Presbyterian church which is said to be the finest in West Virginia, was dedicated at Parkersburg.

—The Advocate says that the Christian church at Danville is having $3,000 worth of improvements made to it.

—A Chicago church has sued the "L" road for $25,000 damages, alleging that the noise of the trains disturbs the services.

—The fifth annual convention of the Baptists' Young People's Union of America will be held at Baltimore, July 18, under the biggest gospel tent ever erected. It will seat 12,000.

—Rev. T. N. Compton held a meeting at the Baptist church in Lawrenceburg of two weeks and gathered 21 in the fold. Rev. Doderidge, a Methodist preacher for many years, renounced his faith and united with the Baptists.

—The South Kentucky Association will be held at Bronston, Pulaski county, Aug. 13; the South District at Perryville, Aug. 20; the Cumberland River at White Lily, near Somerset, Aug. 27; and the Tates Creek at Gilead, Madison county, Aug. 27.

—The Western Recorder pays a high tribute to the memory of Dr. Tiberius Gracchus Jones, who died at Richmond, Va., aged 72. He was a wonderful man, of the highest culture, of the finest taste of the rarest delicacy and of the most thorough refinement.

—The members of the Christian church at Mt. Olivet, this State, are much stirred up because their pastor, Eld. O. P. Wallingford, who also runs a farm, had his wheat cut on Sunday. He gives as an excuse that he could not get the binder any other day. It was either that or lose his crop of wheat, and says that he did not intend to do the latter.

—A German physician has succeeded in removing an entire lung, and the patient has recovered. It only remains now to successfully remove the heart while the man lives on for surgery to accomplish its final triumph.

—Dallas sports claim that the building they will erect for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight will seat 52,815.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Quarterly court is in session this week and Judge Burnside is on the bench.

—License was granted this week to Erasmus Bettis, to wed Miss Clara B. McKinney, both of this place.

—The many friends of Misses Eliza Lusk and Kapp West rejoice to hear that they have been given positions in the graded school here.

—There was a moonlight picnic given Monday night by a number of the young ladies and young men of the place upon the banks of Dix river.

—Quite a number of witnesses are coming in to attend the trial of Nunn for the killing of Beat. Silas Ashley got judgment against the railroad for $92.50 for the killing of a cow.

—Mrs. S. D. Rothwell left Wednesday to take charge of the Dripping Springs. A number of Lancaster people will take a recreation at the springs as Mrs. Rothwell's boarders this season. Remembering Mrs. R.'s capability as a landlady, many will avail themselves of the opportunity to go to the springs.

—A sale was held Thursday of the stock and farm produce of Eph Leavell, of color, of the Sugar Creek section. The sale was well attended by both white and colored, but things were knocked off at rather low prices. Horses and stock sold cheap, mule colts bringing only $12.

—It is with sadness we chronicle the death of little Clyde Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith, of Covington. The idol of fond parents and the pride and pet of devoted sisters closed his eyes on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock to open them again in paradise. The blow falls heavily upon the sorrowing parents as this was their only boy and gave so much promise for the future and only a few years ago they lost their oldest child, a pretty, bright little girl. But weep not for him, remember God has said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The burial occurred at Cynthiana on Wednesday. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Smith here at his old home.

—Married in this place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, their second daughter, Miss Lida, to Mr. W. T. Browning, of Lexington, at 11 o'clock, July 10th. Ceremony by Rev. C. M. Campbell. Attendants, Miss Bettie Anderson and Mr. Oldham. Mr. and Mrs. Browning left at once for a bridal tour upon the lakes. They will be at home to friends after August 10th at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington. Mr. Browning is to be congratulated upon the precious jewel he has won. We know she will be to him a perfect helpmeet, as she is bright, energetic and well fitted to adorn his home, in which the presence of a noble woman is ever felt. The reports reach us that Mr. Browning is worthy indeed of the honors conferred, that of the heart and hand of this true woman.

—Died, in this place Tuesday morning after a lingering illness of consumption, "Uncle" Henry Mason, a worthy and esteemed colored man, in the 70th year of his age. His funeral was preached at the Presbyterian church here at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Boynton, a highly educated colored minister of Danville. The large concourse of people of both races that assembled at the church was a testimonial of the regard in which the deceased was held by all. The funeral discourse was pronounced one of the finest efforts heard in Lancaster for years. Uncle Henry was long a faithful and devoted member of the Presbyterian church and was known as "a rock-ribbed Presbyterian." The exemplary life he always lived is left as a heritage to his wife and children and is indeed worthy of emulation.

—Mrs. C. K. McGwin, of Albany, Ind., is the guest of her parents, Gen. and Mrs. W. J. Landrum. Mrs. Elizabeth Smith has returned from a visit to Louisville. Mrs. Will S. Marrs, of Knoxville, was here this week to attend the Brown-Anderson wedding. Mr. Livingston, wife and little daughter, of Cincinnati, are guests of Mrs. Livingston's aunt, Misses Bettie and Nannie Doores. W. G. Dunlap, of Lexington, was with Lancaster friends last week. Miss Nellie Anderson, of Greensburg, Ind., is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Susan Anderson. Mrs. L. D. Patton and daughter have returned to Somerset, after a visit to Mrs. James L. Yantis. Lawrence and Shirley Rose, of Louisville, are guests of their cousin, Herbert Hardin. Mr. Payne, of Athens, is here visiting the family of Mrs. Anne Hopper. Mrs. Mattie Busby has taken charge of Mrs. S. D. Rothwell's boarding house during her two months' absence. Misses Mary Welch and Brown Buford, of Nicholasville, will arrive tomorrow to visit Mrs. John E. Stormes. Mrs. J. C. Hays, of Louisville, is visiting her brother, Mr. F. L. Austin. W. M. Bogle, of New Orleans, is with W. H. Wherritt and family.

—A difficulty occurred Monday at Paint Lick in which William Beat, the last of the Beat (?) men of that vicinity, was shot and instantly killed by Shelby Nunn, a tenant upon his farm. Beat and Nunn had been to a distillery and a dispute arose over some whisky that they bought, Nunn claiming that Beat owed him $50 and had to pay it. Ever since the difficulty first came up it was feared death would be the result, as Nunn was ever on the lookout for Beat. He saw him passing his house on Monday at 11 o'clock and having previously armed himself, he opened fire on him at once. He (Nunn) hit Beat in the back with a charge of 16 buckshot and shot him again with a pistol after he was dead. Many regard the killing as a deliberate and cowardly murder. Nunn has only recently moved into Garrard from Madison county. William Beat, the man just slain, the older of the two sons, was considered a rather peaceable young man when not under the influence of whisky. He was 32 years of age and leaves a wife and several children. This tragically ends the career of the Beat brothers, who for a number of years past figured notoriously in old Garrard. The examining trial came up Thursday.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—Saxton will furnish the music for the Danville fair this year.

—After six years' delay, Charles Spurlock is on trial at Pineville, for the murder of John Caywood in Harlan.

—Charles Spratt, aged 70, died at Middleboro from the effects of a cold caught at his son's burial a couple of days before.

—On account of the recent heavy rains the Cumberland Gap tunnel has shown signs of weakening, and a force of men are now employed strengthening the defective portion.

—A. B. Brown is in jail at Barboursville for abduction. He had a mania for stealing girls, whom he afterward collected in his mountain home. The latest victim was a Miss Spurlock.

—Mrs. Sarah Odham, a sister of Mr. James A. Harris, of this county, died in Madison, of nervous prostration, aged 67. She was a member of the Waco Baptist church and an excellent woman.

—The Kentucky republicans will establish their headquarters in Louisville and organize their campaign committee next week. Hon. John W. Yerkes will be chairman of the campaign committee.

—N. W. Harris & Co., holders of Middleboro bonds, have agreed with the council to refund them at 4 per cent. The amount of bonds is $150,000. This will save the city $3,000 yearly in interest.

—A dispatch from Danville says that Miss Kate Baker, who, it was believed, was murdered and her body thrown into the Kentucky river at High Bridge, is alive and well at Indianapolis. This leaves the body found still unidentified.

—Engineers and trainmen of the Queen & Crescent road are to be put through a rigid examination to determine whether or not their eyesight and hearing are defective. It is estimated by physicians of the country that 4 per cent. of the human kind are afflicted with what is known as color blindness.

HUBBLE.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Woods are at home from Crab Orchard.

—Mrs. Sam Engleman is visiting her brother and friends in Lexington this week.

—Dr. T. M. Lewis presented Mr. and Mrs. Church Yeager with a fine boy last week, the first to bless their union.

—Luther Underwood sowed the Bird oats the 20th of April and cut them the 20th of June and has a good crop.

—R. L. White is the first one to have new corn on his place in our community. R. W. Givens' wheat threshed out about 14 bushels per acre.

—G. A. Swinebroad started to Bolivar, Tenn., to attend the bedside of his sick mother, who died before he reached her. Susie Brinkley, of Pulaski, is visiting friends and relatives here.

—J. M. Snow sold G. A. Swinebroad a bunch of 160 pound stock hogs at 4c. He also weighed at the scales here W. D. Snow's old male hog, thin in flesh, and he threw up the beam at 470 pounds. Eubanks Bros. sold to George Austin a pair of oxen at 4c.

—One fare to Washington and Baltimore and return. On July 10th and 17th the Chesapeake & Ohio railway will sell round-trip tickets to Baltimore at one fare for the round-trip, good to return until August 5th. Persons should remember that the Chesapeake & Ohio railway now has two solid vestibuled trains each way daily, with through sleeping cars, leaving Lexington 11:40 A. M. and 8:30 P. M. and arriving at Baltimore 8:05 A. M. and 4:57 P. M. next day. Returning, the C. & O. trains leave Baltimore at 12:40 noon and 9:55 P. M. and arrive at Lexington 8:35 A. M. and 6 P. M. next day. No change or transfer from one depot to another via the Chesapeake & Ohio route. For sleeping car reservations or any information write or call on George W. Barney, district passenger agent, Lexington.

—Republicans who are counting on a division in democratic ranks this fall, are reckoning without their hosts. There are gold democrats and silver democrats, but all are democrats.—Glasgow Times.

HUSTONVILLE.

—It is said to be an ascertained fact that a new firm will soon occupy Yowell's store-room and that negotiations to that end are now pending.

—B. C. Drye has filed papers with the president, applying for a position as consul to any South American country that may be lacking such an official.

—Week before last E. B. Caldwell, Jr., of Waynesburg, conferred the degree of the Eastern Star upon 31 ladies, relatives of the Masons of this vicinity, at Masonic Hall.

—A Mrs. Browning, who lived with her son, who is engaged in raising tobacco on the Harman place, died last week and was buried Saturday afternoon on that farm.

—Next Sunday afternoon the members of the Presbyterian Sunday-school will go in a body to the cemetery to bedeck with flowers the grave of their former superintendent, Mr. J. B. Green, whom they still hold in affectionate remembrance.

—As an evidence of the generous spread with which the people of the West End regaled their guests at the picnic dinner on the 4th, 300 loaves of bread and 150 pounds of choice roast beef besides other things edible were left over at the general table that the Masons provided.

—Rev. W. E. Foster, of the Baptist Theological Seminary, preached Sunday morning and night at the Baptist church here. We understand the church at Middleburg has secured his services for the Summer. Rev. Millikin, who supplied the Baptist church once a month last year, has accepted a call to the Somerset church.

—One day this week a weary woman with four tired children accompanying her tramped into town, accepted the hospitality of the city fathers for the night and passed on next day towards Chattanooga as her alleged destination. All of the children had the whooping cough and now the next thing in order will be for our youngsters to whoop things up.

—Allen & McCormick disposed of two car loads of calves and lambs in Cincinnati last week at remunerative prices. Wednesday Jas. Allen tempted fate thro' the stock market by shipping three car loads of lambs from Moreland. Givens & Owens sold to James Allen this week 220 lambs at 3 and 4c. Givens & Owens also shipped Wednesday from McKinney two car loads of sheep and lambs.

—The lecture of Rev. G. W. Perryman, of Newport, at the Presbyterian church Wednesday night was greatly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to attend. It was humorous, pathetic and at times eloquent. Mr. Perryman made his debut as a preacher of the Baptist faith some 15 years ago about Liberty, since which time he has been steadily climbing the ladder of fame, until now he ministers to the largest church of his persuasion in Newport and is much sought after as a lecturer. Many old friends and acquaintances were in his audience here.

—Dr. Bertie Carpenter, of this place, will spend a month or so in the office of Dr. J. G. Carpenter, of Stanford, assisting him. Charley Adams is sick with typhoid fever at the home of his father, L. B. Adams. Carl Meizler, a Danville seminary theologian, who has been boarding at C. C. Vanarsdall's and teaching music in the community, returned to Danville Wednesday to spend the rest of the summer there. He made a host of friends while here. Mr. Wheeler and wife, of Mayslick, Mason county, returned home Wednesday after a visit of a few days to friends and relatives at Mt. Salem. Mr. Joe Barker was up from Jellico last week to see his wife, formerly Miss Lottie Givens, who has been on an extended visit to the family of Mrs. R. B. McKinney. Neal West and wife, of Perryville, were in town last week. Dot Gannitz, after a tussle with scarlet fever, is about well again. Jas. Roe and John Harman, who were recently indisposed, report themselves now in better health than usual. Jas. and Till Cook were at home last week.

—Don't Use Big Words.—In promulgating your esoteric cogitations and in articulating your superficial sentimentalities and amicable philosophical or psychological observations beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your conversational communications possess a clarified consciousness, a compacted comprehensiveness, a coalescent consistency and a concatenated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and a inane affections. Let your extemporaneous decantings and unmediated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity without rhodomontade or thesaurical bombast. Sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity, pompous prolixity, psittacous vacuity, ventriloquial verbosity and vauquelinian vapidity. Shun double expletives; prudent jocosity and bestialous insolency, obscuring or apparent. In other words talk plainly, briefly, naturally, sensibly, purely and truthfully. Keep from slang; don't put on airs; say what you mean; mean what you say and don't use big words.

JAMES FRYE, HUSTONVILLE, KY.

I have an immense stock of goods now arriving which will revolutionize the retail trade. The prices mentioned below will seem impossible to a great many people but I will pay any one's toll coming to my store and not finding them as I represent them. All of these goods will arrive in the next few days.

CLOTHING !

A good black slicker $1.25, very fine rubber coat $1.50 worth $3. Black cape McIntosh $3.75 worth $5.50. Mens' sandals worth 75c for 45c, Ladies' sandals worth 50c for 35c. Boy's knee pant suits for 65c, $1.10, 1.40, 2.00, 2.50 and 3.50, worth almost double. Mens' and Youth's suits, coat, pants and vest, $2.50 to $7.50, worth $5 to $15. Mens' fine suits, imported goods, elegantly trimmed and tailor made for $12.50 to $15, former price 18 to 25 dollars. These goods are equal to suits that tailors charge double the money for.

DRESS GOODS !

Woolen dress goods in great variety of style and quality and I know that I own them way down below their actual value and will sell them lower than the lowest. Don't buy your dress or silk shirt waist until you see how cheap I will sell them to you. Wash Fabrics I have in all the latest novelties, both in style and color. I have a line of check, striped and figured white goods carried over from last year for half price.

Carpets and Mattings.—My prices on these will surprise you. They are all new, not a single piece of carried over stock.

A Great Bargain.—A black stiff hat, the very latest shaye, for $1.15 worth $3. The sequel—Buy and sell for Cash.

For Representative,
M. F. NORTH

The democratic nominees for State offices met in Louisville a day or two ago and agreed to ask the State central committee to eliminate the currency question from discussion in the campaign, as it has been settled so far as the party is concerned by the action of the convention. That the question has no proper place in this canvass was readily agreed, but the candidate who does not readily acquiesce in the decisions of his party and who does not hold himself in readiness always to uphold and maintain the principles which it enunciates, is not worthy of the support of the party. For the sake of harmony we should like to see the currency issue relegated to the rear in the canvass, but Col. Bradley is going to force the fighting on that line and his "Me Too," Tom Pettit, will follow suit, so the democratic candidates will have to come to time, or stand from under.

There is an old saying that there are a great many other ways to kill a dog besides choking him to death with butter. There are also a great many ways to evade a law and the inventive genius of those who want to deal in contraband whisky usually find some way to do so. A temperance law has just gone into effect in Indiana, and already numerous and sundry schemes to beat it have been devised. One is to cut a plug out of a watermelon, take out enough of the meat to insert a pint bottle of liquor and then stick the rind back with wax. The innocent looking melon sells for a dollar, the State loses the revenue and the buyer goes off and gets drunk.

It will relieve the anxiety of a waiting world to know that Editor Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News, will support the democratic ticket. Fears that he would not do so have cast a gloom over the party's prospects and predictions of defeat were sorrowfully made, but now all is changed and hope again drives away doubt's depressing influence. The ticket will be elected, but the platform, which he declares he will not support, will go the democratic bowwows. Editor Sommers is one of a quartet of country editors who think themselves greater and better than the democratic party, and it must be so, since they themselves have said it.

The monument erected at Lexington by the "Orphan Brigade" to their gallant commander, Gen. Roger W. Hanson and his wife, was dedicated Thursday with most imposing ceremonies. Fifty members of the old command were present and they with soldiers from other commands marched out to the cemetery, where Supt. of Public Instruction E. Porter Thompson delivered a most touching and appropriate oration. Gov. Buckner and Senator Blackburn also made short addresses, which carried the old soldiers back to the stirring scenes of the early '60s.

BLACKBURN Senatorial stock, which was at a very low ebb, has risen a little since Henry, Carroll and Simpson have nominated candidates for the Legislature favorable to him. The selection of a free silverite in Simpson county is regarded as evidence that Blackburn man will be elected in all of the Western Kentucky counties, which would have gone for Brown had he remained a candidate. Hope springs eternal in the human breast and it is well that it is so, otherwise Blackburn and his following would be inconceivable.

"PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is cutting down all the shade trees at the White House," said one minstrel to another, "What for?" asked the other. "To get a little sun (son)" was the reply. If the president did take the precaution it was of no avail, it seems. By the way the name of Groveretta has been suggested for the new corner, which under the circumstances appears to be a good one.

A DISPATCH from Bargain says that Collector C. H. Rodes is laying his wires to succeed Gov. McCreary in Congress. The mantle of the model Congressman could not fall on worthier shoulders, but from present indications the gentleman will not don it without a struggle. The woods will be full of candidates and Lincoln will likely add to the quota.

It is said that President Harrison, whom by the way, we met while in Indianapolis recently, that is to say we met him as he was going one way and we the other, but didn't speak as we passed by, has declared against chewing gum and bloomers for bicycle riding. We do not know that he intends to make his canvass for the republican nomination for president on these momentous issues, but we do know that if he does he will lose the States that permit woman suffrage and injure his chances in Lancaster, where everybody, young and old, black and white, are addicted to the gum habit.

THE Courier Journal wisely remarks that if ever there was a time when the country stood in need of a recurrence to first principles, if ever there was a time when it needed to be done with quibbling and evasion on the part of its public men, that time is now, when statesmen in their dotage forget the lessons of the past, and kid politicians, hardly out of their teens, set up for philosophers and sages.

SENATOR BLACKBURN says the currency question may not have anything to do with the State race, but it is a conspicuous issue in his and he will continue to advocate the free and unlimited coinage of silver, which of course makes it all the more certain that he is going to get left and justly so.

"THE uncrowned queen of American womanhood" is doing as "well as could be expected" with Miss Cleveland the Third. Those who have seen it say it is as fine a baby as ever was and it must be if it takes after its charming mother.

—David Watson, a prisoner in the penitentiary at Jeffersonville, Ind., jumped from a fifth story window and was mangled in a pulp. His mind had been affected some time.

—Ben Lewis, of Mt. Vernon, O., shot a cat under his house and tried to fish it out with the butt end of his gun. The other barrel went off striking him in the stomach and killing him almost instantly.

—The C. H. & D., Cincinnati, Dayton & Chicago, and the Cincinnati, Dayton and Ironton railroad companies consolidated with the name Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway Company.

—John Bogart, of Napoleon, O., got on a spree and failed to "show up" at home for several days. His wife brooded over the matter and finally killed herself by drinking a half pint of horse liniment.

—In Montgomery county, N. C., during a fight between two brothers, Rink and Frank Williams, their mother attempted to take a revolver from one, when she was shot in the abdomen and killed.

—The 2-year old boy baby of Jeff Martin, of Powell county, found a large copperhead snake in the parlor, and thinking it a plaything, picked it up. The child had a narrow escape. The snake was killed.

—Mrs. Clarence Chaffins, of Huntington, W. Va., shot and seriously wounded a woman named Jennie Overall, whom she suspected of intimacy with Mr. Chaffins. The shooting occurred in a street-car.

—A Covington policeman made an attempt to arrest a negro woman on a felony charge. She pulled a razor and sliced off one of the officer's ears and badly cut him otherwise. She was finally knocked down and taken in charge.

—A remission of the fictions of the Order of Elks ended in an accident at Atlantic City. A building filled with people collapsed, and fully 1,000 people were precipitated to the floor below. Eight persons were seriously injured, and one has died.

—Thos. O. Forman, of Lexington, one of the State's best known horsemen, died Sunday morning. A year ago he had his two front fingers bitten off by a vicious horse and from that day until relieved by death he was a constant sufferer.

—Aaron Schneider, a hermit living near Hamilton, O., committed suicide by eating two ounces of Paris green. He was robbed and cruelly tortured by a couple of thieves a short while before and it is thought that his fear of again being robbed caused him to take his life.

—Eight men went to the house of Joseph Howton, near Princeton, and demanded that he open the door. He refused and was fatally wounded. Hewlett Howton was then dragged from this house and murdered. Testimony in a criminal case is supposed to be the cause.

—Miss Nellie Murphy, daughter of a wealthy planter near Braidentown, Fla., while out horseback riding, was attacked by vicious stallion, which bit her severely. There was a wild race for life, the stallion being shot by the girl's father, just as the horse dashed into the gate of the plantation.

—Kate Welch, an inmate of the asylum at Leno, Nev., has $10,291 deposited in the Hawaiian Bank, in San Francisco, which has remained uncalled for for 21 years. The bank officials traced every woman of that name on the Pacific coast and several Eastern States before finding the real owner.

—The supposed murderers of pretty Mary Baker, the girl who was so brutally murdered and thrown into the Kentucky river near Valley View, have been arrested on the charge of murder as follows: Frank Dickerson, Roland Tate, William Walker and a colored woman named Mary David as accomplice.

—John D. Young, Jr., son of the ex-Congressman and present master commissioner of Bath, in an altercation with his cousin, Pliny Fassett, on the streets in Owingville, cut Fassett's throat, severing the jugular vein, and producing death in a few minutes. They had quarreled over a trivial matter.

—A steel tower 1,150 feet high is the latest Chicago undertaking.

—Broker Lewis, of Urbana, O., has disappeared, and $50,000 of his forged bonds have turned up. His bank has been closed by a run on it.

—W. B. Colvin, a lawyer, shot and killed Josiah Stevens, a preacher, at Indian Springs Station, Ind. This preacher was first to draw his pistol.

—The Spanish government has demanded a disavowal by America of an alleged interview with Minister Eustis published in the Paris Figaro.

—Five charred bodies have been recovered from the debris of the Detroit stable fire. One man is still missing and another is perhaps fatally injured. Forty horses were burned and the loss is $100,000.

—The republicans of Iowa nominated Gen. Drake for governor and reaffirmed the last national republican platform on the currency question, but added a declaration in favor of free coinage of silver under the international agreement. They also declared for Senator Allison for president.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Scott county millers are paying 65c. for wheat.

—Georgia's fruit crop this year is estimated to be worth $3,000,000.

—Best cattle bring 5, select hogs 5 1/2 and extra lambs 5 1/2 in Cincinnati.

—P. W. Green bought of T. M. Clarkson a 4-year-old bay gelding for $180.

—B. D. Holtzclaw sold to Thompson Bros., a bunch of 2-year-old mountain cattle at 2 1/2c.

—Reports show that the corn crop condition in the South is excellent. Cotton is only fair.

—Wheat took a slump of eight cents in two days at Chicago, going down to 67 1/2 for September.

—Gov. Brown has ordered that a mysterious disease affecting Odham county cattle be investigated.

—A number of farmers in this section decided that 60c is not enough for wheat and are stacking their crops.

—M. F. Elkin bought of R. Cobb some butcher stuff at 3c and of Mrs. Alice Lytle a small bunch of lambs at 2 1/2c.

—H. C. Williams bought Monday 700 bushels of wheat at 50c, but good wheat is bringing 60c.—Anderson News.

—W. H. Traylor sold to Simon Wehl 64 cattle averaging 1,151 pounds at 5c and 43 averaging 1,056 pounds at 3 1/2c.

—California's peach crop in the central and northern parts of the State, promises this year to be the largest ever raised.

—James M. Lang, of Paducah, has a tree in his residence yard that bears fruit that is a cross between a peach and a plum.

—J. B. Gentry's Oracle ran second at Oakley yesterday afternoon. The race was won by Zonous. Distance 1/2 of a mile; time 1:01 1/2.

—There was a total of 1,346 hogsheads of tobacco sold at Louisville, which broke the record of that or any other market for one day.

—The largest yield of wheat so far reported by a Boyle county farmer comes from J. Harlan, who got 31 bushels to the acre.—Advocate.

ELDRIDGE REID, colored, was given 30 days in jail in Judge Davidson's court for stealing a pig from Samuel Cochran, of the East End.

The weather has been deliciously pleasant for several days. A shower or two fell yesterday and the probabilities for today are fair and warmer.

The proceeds of the moonlight fete on the College grounds this evening go to a good cause. Lend the young ladies in charge your aid by attending.

Mr. A. C. Carman now has more land in Lincoln county than anybody. He bought most of the 100 tracts sold by ex-Sheriff J. N. Menefee for taxes.

A 104 pound boy has come to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Shelby. The latter was Miss Laura Hubble and Mr. Shelby used to be known as "Jock."

HAVING secured the services of Mr. Lewis H. Bellebaum, an expert pharmacist, we are prepared to fill prescriptions day or night. Accuracy guaranteed. Craig & Hocker.

The pocket book found by John G. Lynn, Jr., and Lynn Carr with $12 in it, and advertised in this paper, was claimed by Mr. G. G. Wine by 8 o'clock the morning of publication.

We have some accounts on our books for which we have waited long and patiently and now we say to those who owe them that they must be paid. A hint to wise people is sufficient. Hughes & Tate.

The booth privileges of the Casey County Fair will be sold to the highest bidder at Liberty, July 15, county court day. The fair will be held Aug. 28 to 30. J. Boyle Stone, president; M. K. Humphrey, secretary.

CASEY FAIR.—Secretary M. K. Humphrey, of the Casey Fair, was here Tuesday to get the catalogues printed. The fair will begin Aug. 29 and last three days. The list is extensive and the premiums large. Write to him after to day for catalogue.

LOST.—Mrs. J. W. Pulliam lost Tuesday either in Buffalo Cemetery or between there and town a lady's flat pocket book with a rubber around it. It contained besides money, a receipt with her husband's name signed. Leave at this office and get reward.

JOHN HARPER, aged 15, was tried before Judge Davidson Wednesday for cutting the tail off of a coat belonging to John Thornton, who lives on J. H. McAlister's farm, and fined $10. Harper was mad at Thornton and took this method of revenge. The coat came very near bleeding to death.

Mr. J. A. Estes, of Casey, in remitting for his paper, says: "At a meeting of the stockholders of the Middleburg and Liberty turnpike Saturday, a dividend of 12 per cent was declared. I was again elected president for the 21st time." Mr. Estes knows how to run a turnpike as well as to be one of the cleverest of gentlemen.

The Rev. Peter Vinegar discoursed on "A Damned Hot Day" at the courthouse Tuesday night, to a large audience of colored and a number of white persons, who went away feeling that it was not very good to have been there. "Brer" Vinegar was both tireless and dull. He evidently uses the name of his lecture to draw the crowd and then punishes them for coming.

DOGS.—We are glad to observe that the city council has ordered the immediate collection of the dog tax. The amount per head is only 50c, but judging by the way the worthless brutes make night hideous with their barks and howls, there are enough of them, even at that figure to raise sufficient revenue to run the town. The law provides a penalty of $3 a day against those who fail to pay the tax and the killing of the cur. What a man in town wants with a dog, except to harass his neighbors by with their howls, is more than we can conceive and those who enjoy the luxury should be made to pay at least $5 for each dog they so inflict on the public.

Don't fail to attend the moonlight fete on the College grounds this evening. Delightful refreshments, inspiring music and beautiful young ladies will be on hand in abundance. Only 25c will be charged.

The Locomotive Engineers advertise a big picnic at Meaden's Park, Lebanon Junction, July 20. A prize of $50 will be given to the prettiest lady present and $25 to the ugliest man. Games, music and dancing will also be enjoyed. T. B. Meade and Sherman Napper, who used to live here, are on the arrangement committee.

Mr. M. D. Elmore, who has a large orchard on his place back of his residence, is trying a most novel way to keep the boys from taking his apples. Every morning he gathers a large basket full and keeps them at his store free of charge. He gives them out to the Young America and fills the pocket of every little fellow who happens by.

ONLY ONE NOW.—P. W. Green's license at Rowland having expired, he has closed his bar room there and will await the action of the court of appeals on the constitutionality of the law under which the prohibition election was held, before applying for renewal. Judge Shelton claims to have town permission and protection to sell liquor till Aug. 11, and he will continue to do so.

At an adjourned meeting of the city council Tuesday night the question of extending the water mains on the cut off pike, which has been agitated for several years, was settled by appropriating $100 for that purpose and the residents along the line will pay the rest. The Stanford Water, Light & Ice Co. was paid $58, balance due Jan. 1, '95 and $587.50 on account to July 1st. Messrs. J. M. Hall and William Daugherty were appointed a committee to have the streets worked on and Marshal O. J. Newland was ordered to begin at once the collection of the dog tax which is 50 cents on the head.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—Rev. Price, colored, of Nicholasville, who has been holding a meeting at the Baptist church on Hanging Fork was shot in the arm by Alfred Bright, also colored, Wednesday. Price had spent most of his time at Bright's house and the intimacy between his wife and the preacher aroused his suspicions. Bright set a trap for the preacher and caught him dead to rights and then proceeded to do him up. His shot gun was brought into use and had Price not skipped out he would no doubt have been killed. As it was his arm was badly shot. It is hardly probable that he will return to finish his meeting.

The killing of William Best is another exemplification of the Scriptural assertion that he who lives by the sword shall die by the sword. After a tempestuous life, during which he is said to have killed one or more men, and was nearly always in trouble, he was foully murdered by Speed Nunn, who had quarreled with him over the payment of some whisky. As Best passed his house he fired on him without warning knocking him from his horse. He then emptied another load of buckshot into his prostrate victim, and as he lay struggling in the throes of death, ran to his side with pistol in hand and emptied the five loads into his body. The killing of Best wipes out the last of a family which has been noted for its killing qualities. Humphrey, a brother of the deceased, was killed a year ago, within a 100 yards of the late murder, after he had put several men to sleep. The father of the boys, Ebenezer Best, died a natural death, singular as it may appear when it is told that during his career, he had sent seven souls unprepared into eternity. Nunn gave himself up and is in jail at Lancaster, apparently careless of his fate. Unless the jury takes into consideration the character of the man he killed, the murderer will doubtless give the Garrard people another chance to see a man hung.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mrs. J. Schneider, a widow aged 70, living at Madison, Ind., jumped in her cistern while in a fit of anger and was drowned.

—Louisville is getting as bad as Chicago for misfit marriages. A judge granted nine divorces at one sitting in the Falls City, Tuesday.

—Rev. F. S. Pollitt, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here, was married, yesterday at Hudson, Ill., to Mrs. Daisy Carlack.

—Charles M. Shane, a bachelor of 54 and Mrs. F. B. Skagg, a widow of 39, were married at the groom's home near Kingsville Wednesday.

—Concerning a sweetheart's earning capacity, a girl should look beyond his being able to support her nicely on his knee.—Philadelphia Times.

—Charles Hendricks, of Lafayette, Ind., wants a divorce from his wife because she spit in his face and quarreled at him when he came home "tipsy."

—At Eddyville, 185 ballots were taken by the democratic convention in the effort to nominate a candidate for circuit judge. The first and last ballot stood: Morrow 12, Burnett 5, Watkins 4, Linn 8.

Georgetown Times: If you don't like the democratic platform you can vote for the ticket. If you don't like the ticket vote for the platform. Both are better than anything offered by the republicans.

"Next to knowing when to seize an opportunity, the most important thing in life is to know when to forego an advantage."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.
